ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

i. The defendant shall continue to participate in a mental health treatment program approved by the probation officer. The defendant shall waive his right of confidentiality in records concerning his mental health treatment to the extent that these records reflect the dates of treatment sessions and Valle's progress with the treatment provider. The defendant will be required to contribute to the costs of services rendered in an amount approved by the probation officer, based on the defendant's ability to pay or the availability of a third-party payor.

ii. The defendant shall not have contact with the women who were alleged targets of the conduct charged in Count 1 or the woman who was the subject of the conduct that forms the basis for Count 2. This includes any physical, visual, written, electronic, or telephonic contact with such persons. Additionally, the defendant shall not directly cause or encourage anyone else to have such contact with these women. This provision is not intended to restrict the defendant's participation in any family court proceedings involving his daughter.

iii. The defendant is not to use a computer, Internet-capable device, or similar electronic device to access sexual fetish websites, including chat rooms or forums or other means by which users communicate with other individuals or groups about sexual fetishes. The defendant shall consent to the use and/or installation of a computer program designed to detect such use on computers owned or controlled by the defendant. The computer program or programs used will be designed to identify, for the probation office, only the viewing, downloading, uploading, transmitting, or other use of images or content involving sexual fetishes. Such use will be detected through the screening of the defendant's computer usage for certain key words, phrases, and images. The defendant shall consent to the monitoring of his computer usage for this purpose.
